

KATRAMOPOULOS JEWELLERY TAKES LONDON BY STORM

Katramopoulos participated in SALON QP 2012 as the only jewellers among the finest watches and watchmakers in the world. London collectors, enthusiasts, buyers and media visiting the Saatchi Gallery had the opportunity to admire entirely hand made, unique pieces from the Katramopoulos collection earlier in November.

To mark its debut in the London market, Katramopoulos Jewellers sponsored the SQUARE MILE MASKED BALL, the annual charity event gathering the most prominent bankers and hedge fund managers of the City.

Following the success in Monte Carlo in the spring, the brand associated with a passion for fine jewellery passed from father to son for three generations, is on its way to conquer London.
